Huibregtse Award

The Huibregtse Award was established to enhance the education of UW-Madison College of Engineering students by providing financial support to participants on UW-Madison approved semester and year-long study abroad programs. Students may only receive the Huibregtse Award once.

Criteria
Scholarships will be awarded to full-time students attending the College of Engineering at UW-Madison in a degree-granting engineering program. Criteria for consideration include:

- Financial need (this will be verified by the Office of Student Financial Services)
- Minimum overall GPA of 3.0
- Admission to an UW-Madison College of Engineering approved semester or year-long study abroad program.
- At least Junior standing
- Graduate of Wisconsin public high school
- Applicants participating in programs located in Eastern Europe will receive first consideration

Application deadlines
First Friday in April for fall/year programs
First Friday in November for spring programs

Application process
Please submit the following items:

- Huibregtse Award application
- Student Academic Record from MyUW
- Current resume
- One page type-written statement addressing:
  - The relevance of the particular study abroad program to your academic, professional and personal goals
  - Your need for financial support for study abroad.

Applications should be submitted to:

International Engineering Studies and Programs
1410 Engineering Drive, Room 170
Madison, WI 53706

Your Huibregtse Award Application will be reviewed for consideration only if a completed UW-Madison College of Engineering study abroad application has been received by International Engineering Studies and Programs prior to the Huibregtse Award application deadline. Scholarship award notifications will be sent to you electronically no later than one month after the application deadline. Scholarship checks will be disbursed no later than 2 months prior to the beginning of your study abroad program.
